HITECH CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Purpose and Scope

This Code of Conduct outlines the ethical principles and behavioral standards expected of all HITECH employees, contractors, consultants, suppliers, and third-party partners. It applies across all operations and project sites in Nigeria and internationally. It is an integral part of HITECH's Environmental and Social Management System (ESMS) and must be read alongside the ESMS policies and HR Employment Handbook.

2. Commitment to Ethical Excellence

HITECH is committed to conducting business with the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, and sustainability. This includes full compliance with:

- National laws and regulations
- IFC Performance Standards
- ILO Core Conventions
- Equator Principles IV
- UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs)
- Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights (UNVP)

3. Compliance with Law and Regulation

All personnel must comply with:

- Local and international labor, HSE, and environmental laws.
- Anti-corruption, anti-money laundering (AML), and sanctions requirements.
- Occupational health and safety (OHS) rules and project-specific CESMPs.

4. Health, Safety, and Environment (HSE)

All individuals must:

- Follow safe work procedures and use PPE at all times.
- Participate in toolbox talks, risk assessments, and safety training.
- Immediately report unsafe acts or incidents.
- Comply with site-specific traffic, security, and emergency rules.
- Protect environmental resources and avoid pollution or waste.

Smoking is only allowed in designated areas. Drug or alcohol use is strictly prohibited.

5. Human Rights and Fair Labor

HITECH prohibits:

- Child labor and forced labor in any form.
- Discrimination, harassment, or abuse of power.
- Unfair recruitment, unequal pay, and unsafe work conditions.

All workers have the right to freedom of association, collective bargaining, rest days, and just working hours. Employees must uphold dignity and mutual respect at all times.

6. Gender-Based Violence and Harassment (GBVH)

HITECH maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward sexual harassment, abuse, and gender-based violence (GBV). All workers must:

- Undergo GBVSH training and comply with behavioral expectations.

- Refrain from any form of unwanted attention, harassment, or coercion.
- Respect the dignity of women and all vulnerable groups in the workplace and in the community.

7. Anti-Bribery, Anti-Corruption, and AML

HITECH strictly prohibits:

- Bribery, kickbacks, facilitation payments, and conflicts of interest.
- Any transaction involving criminal proceeds or sanctioned parties.
- Gifts or hospitality that may influence decision-making.

Staff and suppliers must undergo KYC screening and AML/ABC compliance reviews. All payments must be traceable and made through approved banking channels.

8. Social Responsibility and Community Conduct

Everyone must:

- Respect local customs, traditions, and cultural heritage.
- Avoid conflict with communities and report any tensions.
- Protect community access to water, roads, and utilities.
- Support inclusion of vulnerable and marginalized groups.
- Handle grievances respectfully, through the defined GRM.

9. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Employees must:

- Protect personal data, project documents, and client information.
- Use company property, information, and communication systems responsibly.
- Avoid unauthorized disclosure of any confidential material.

10. Third Parties and Subcontractors

All suppliers, subcontractors, and consultants must:

- Sign the Supplier Code of Conduct or Subcontractor Agreement.
- Train their personnel on HITECH's policies and procedures.
- Comply with labor, environmental, and safety standards.
- Establish internal grievance systems and cooperate in audits.

11. Reporting and Whistleblowing

Violations of this Code or related policies must be reported to:

- The HSE Manager, HR Manager, or the Managing Director.
- Through grievance boxes or via the secure anonymous reporting channels.

Retaliation against whistleblowers is prohibited. All reports will be handled confidentially and investigated promptly.

12. Enforcement and Disciplinary Action

Violations may result in:

- Verbal/written warnings, suspension, dismissal.
- Contract termination for third parties.
- Legal or regulatory action, if required.
